

Playbook: How Can Indian Companies Go Global

Introduction

India is evolving into a global economic powerhouse, and Indian businesses are now more ready than ever to expand their footprints into international markets. The Bharat Economic Forum (BEF) has created a comprehensive, strategic platform that empowers Indian companies to venture into Europe through its Germany-based Global Capability Centre (GCC). This playbook, "How Can Indian Companies Go Global," serves as an extensive, easy-to-follow guide for founders, CXOs, startups, exporters, MSMEs, and industry leaders looking to tap into global opportunities.

Chapter 1: Understanding the Global Opportunity

The Viksit Bharat @2047 Vision

India's vision to become a developed nation by 2047 depends on global economic participation. Expansion into international markets is no longer a luxury—it's a necessity for growth.

Why Expand Globally?

- Increase your customer base
- Gain access to foreign investments
- Tap into technology and innovation
- Diversify business risks

Why Choose Europe?

- Access to a 16 trillion USD consumer market
- Stable political and economic climate
- Harmonized regulations across 27 EU countries
- High demand for innovative and sustainable products

Why Germany?

- Economic engine of the EU
- World leader in manufacturing and research
- Centrally located with easy access to other European countries
- Strong Indo-German trade and diplomatic relations

Chapter 2: Bharat Economic Forum's Global Capability Centre (GCC) in Germany

What is the GCC?

The Global Capability Centre is BEF's infrastructure in Germany designed to assist Indian companies with every aspect of international expansion. It acts as your operational home base in Europe.

Key Facilities and Services:

- Plug-and-play office space
- EU-compliant registration and legal setup
- Local HR and hiring support
- Legal, tax, and compliance advisory
- Brand positioning and PR support
- Pilot project coordination with German municipalities
- Business matchmaking with European buyers, distributors, and investors

Value-Added Support:

- Translation and localization services
 - Market research and customer segmentation
 - Technology incubation and R&D linkage
-

Chapter 3: Dialogue Series – "How Can Indian Companies Go Global?"

This curated Dialogue Series brings together industry leaders, policymakers, consultants, and investors to explore how Indian companies can strategically enter the European market.

Dialogue Formats:

- Industry-Focused Panels: IT, MedTech, Agritech, FinTech, Web3, Manufacturing, Green Energy, and EdTech
- Policy Dialogues: With EU trade officials and Indo-German chambers
- Masterclasses: On certifications (CE, GDPR, ESG), taxation, cross-border banking
- Delegation Tours: Visits to BEF GCC Germany campus and local partner districts

Learning Outcomes:

- Clear understanding of EU compliance landscape
 - Insights into business cultures and expectations
 - Exposure to funding and venture capital networks
 - Blueprint for setting up and scaling operations abroad
-

Chapter 4: Branding, Media, and Recognition Strategy

A critical pillar of going global is building visibility and credibility. BEF ensures this through structured media exposure and prestigious recognition.

Media Engagement Channels:

- Leading Indian and European newspapers
- Business and startup TV channels
- Branded podcast series and YouTube interviews
- Digital campaigns via LinkedIn, Instagram, and Twitter

Viksit Bharat Awards:

Exceptional companies and entrepreneurs showing tangible international expansion efforts are felicitated with Viksit Bharat Awards. Awardees will receive:

- Recognition during global forums
 - Features in industry magazines
 - Coverage in national and international media
 - Certification of global excellence by BEF
-

Chapter 5: Step-by-Step Expansion Blueprint

Step 1: Expression of Interest

Submit your company profile through the BEF portal to enroll in the Dialogue Series and GCC onboarding process.

Step 2: Business Diagnostic & Orientation

Attend introductory webinars, consultations, and one-on-one sessions to identify your business readiness and fit for European markets.

Step 3: Legal & Regulatory Setup

With BEF's legal advisors:

- Register your company in the EU
- Complete GDPR, ESG, and CE certification processes
- Open European bank accounts

Step 4: Build Your Market Entry Strategy

- Conduct consumer and competition research
- Localize product/service offerings
- Decide on direct entry vs. local partnerships

Step 5: Launch Operations via GCC

- Start pilot projects
- Hire local staff and sales teams
- Engage with municipal authorities and buyers

Step 6: Brand & Publicize Your Expansion

- Participate in trade expos
 - Publish thought leadership in media
 - Use BEF's media partnerships for PR
-

Chapter 6: Who Should Participate

This playbook is ideal for:

- Founders and Entrepreneurs: Ready to grow their companies abroad
 - Export Managers: Wanting to unlock untapped European markets
 - Startup Accelerators and Incubators: Looking for global soft-landing partners
 - CSR Committees: Exploring impact collaborations with European partners
 - Policy Think Tanks: Interested in Indo-EU trade development
-

Chapter 7: Strategic Benefits for Indian Companies

1. Instant Market Access

Skip the struggle of figuring out things yourself. With BEF's infrastructure and partners, you get direct access to EU clients and collaborators.

2. Local Credibility

Having a registered presence in Germany boosts your brand's credibility with buyers and regulators.

3. Cost Efficiency

Shared infrastructure and vetted local services mean lower costs and higher ROI.

4. Funding Support

Opportunities to pitch to European VCs, CSR investors, and public grant schemes.

5. Global Visibility

With media coverage and Viksit Bharat Awards, your company gets recognized globally as a brand with vision and potential.

Chapter 8: Getting Started with BEF

Contact Us:

- Email: partnerships@bharateconomicforum.org
- Phone: +91-8744089014
- Website: www.bharateconomicforum.org

Join the Conversation:

- LinkedIn: Bharat Economic Forum
- Twitter: @BEF_Official
- Instagram & YouTube: @BharatEconomicForum

Conclusion: Your Global Journey Starts Now

The Bharat Economic Forum is here to be your trusted partner on your international growth journey. Whether you are an SME, a startup, or a large conglomerate, the tools, infrastructure, and insights provided in this playbook and through the BEF Global Capability Centre in Germany are designed to simplify your global leap.

Let's build a global Bharat. One company at a time.

Start Today. Expand Tomorrow. Grow Forever.

Issued By:

Bharat Economic Forum Communications Team
India | Germany | UAE

